Monday

I Got the Mo'
5-6 pm
Relax and enjoy your Monday evenings with M.C. Weber, the self-appointed, 200 proof stallion. I Got the Mo' will get you inspired with great college music. Listener requests are always played.

Coming Attractions
6-7 pm
Rotating announcers.

Flip Side
7-8 pm
You will hear jazz focusing on the 1940s-1960s era. Most likely including various live tracks by musicians such as Charlie Parker, Thelonious Monk, Billie Holiday, etc...

The Rain Dance
8-9 pm
This show is all about exposing the underexposed. Lots of great music from all over the world never makes it onto the radio in Portland. Usually at least half the show will be devoted to local and regional music.

Brady Experience
9-10 pm
Johnny Bravo brings an hour of indie pop noise music to the airways, fusing the Boredoms with Bricks, and pureeing Trumans Water with Bitch Magnet. Because it's not always a Sunshine Day!

Chronic Altitude
10-11 pm
The Ladies bring to you a mixture of the finest new and classic college music. Emphasis on female and local talent. Lots of new releases.

Imperial Darkness
11-12 am
My name is Derek Kaiser from somewhere, Ill(corn capital of the world). My program focuses on dark-humored endeavors.

Tuesday

Rude Boy's Revenge and Coffee Hour
5-6 pm
DJ Simmerdown presents the best in the past, present, and future ska, bluebeat, and ska-influenced reggae. First, second, and third generation ska from bands like the Wailers, Desmond Dekker, the Specials, English Beat, Dance Hall Crashers, Hepcat.

Shrink Rap
6-7 pm
Fear and loathing in mental health! Bargain basement psychotherapy! Join clinical social workers Tim Hagge and Susan Platt as they examine mental health topics with enough irreverence to actually make it interesting. They take call-ins too!

The Chase Lounge
7-8 pm
A hip-swing hour of lounge and love for the new era of easy listeners. Cocktails anyone?

Yellow Submarine
8-9 pm
DJ Judy Moon brings you an hour of Asian alternative music which includes rock, metal, industrial and noise. Traditional music will also be played for a taste of music from every part of Asia.

Radio KAOS
9-10 pm
Agent 99 plays what she wants with no consideration for others. That bitch.

The Zen Crux
10-11 pm
Mike V says, Indie Noise Pop = I speed opinion = Iodine Pose Pin. Tune in to hear how and why.

Medusa's Banquet
11-12 am
Focuses on the dark, experimental, and obscure, but has an affection for internationally/ethnically inspired, female influenced, and "beautiful" music. Varies, never stagnant.

Wednesday

The Gumbo Ya Ya Hour
5-6 pm
Music from Southwestern Louisiana with Cajun bands both traditional and contemporary. Electrifying Zydeco from established stars to bands that are on the cutting edge of this good-time music. Also includes music from "The Big Easy" - New Orleans; from Fats Domino and the Meters to the Neville Brothers and The Rebirth Brass Band. So crack open a cold one and "Shake That Thing" with the Gumbo Ya Ya Hour. Yeah You Right!!

Back Talk
6-7 pm
Tony Velveeta invites PSU students to program one hour of live radio. Play and say what you like, take call-ins, have some good clean fun.

Vintage Vinyl
7-8 pm
Hostess Laurel highlights 1920s-40s 78 rpm records with all their degrees of historical and musical seriousness.

Red Archer's Revue
8-9 pm
The Revue is four rotating weeks of atmospheric audio from around the world: World Enclave explores ethnic and traditional music; Greenwich Mean Time tours the world of international and progressive pop; Audio Eccentricities features spoken word and other special programming, and Cornerstone delves into the realm of experimental, electronic, and industrial music. Don't miss this unique show.

The Plastic Chainsaw
9-10 pm
Comrades, squatters, Suzuki owners, anarcho-syndicalists, punks, Trotskyists, vegans, pacifists, trees, seven, proles, students, sexy, hey you, little black spiders, dude, others, KPSU is proud to present.....Plastic Chainsaw.....

Bore Hole
10-11 pm
Sitting around at home alone
On a weekend afternoon
No projects, all I had was dreams
And a few scratched records
I believed in all my heroes
The Dics, Avengers, and the Zeros
Look, but they're nowhere to be seen...
(Punk and music from the pop underground with Douggie Grime.)

Dig a Deeper Hole
11-12 am
In which we endeavor to bring you all manner of experimental, industrial (of the Throbbing Gristle variety), ambient or odd music. You will hear Nurse With Wound, Current 93, Daniel Menche, Coil, SPK, :zoviet-france:, Laibach, and so on. The underground can be found...just dig deeper.

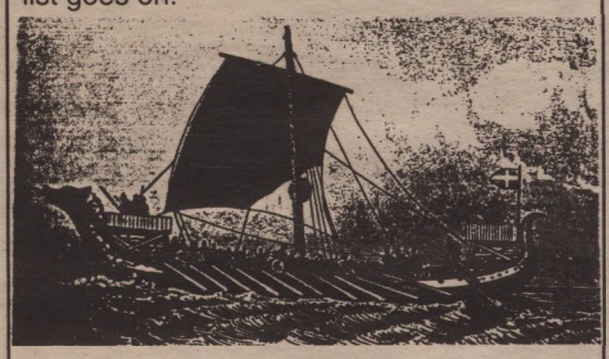
A musical adventure traveling straight to you. A journey through 80s college music to today's scene. Examples: Boomtown Rats, Joe Jackson, Split-Enz, REM, Offspring, L7, and the list goes on.



Off the Page
6-7 pm
Host Joe Cronin brings a program of words and music where the words rule. There will be news and interviews with poets and musicians both local and national. From "poetry slams" to "word shows," the spoken word is getting louder by the hour.

American Roots
7-8 pm
The best in blues, R&B, Gospel, Honky Tonk, Rockabilly, and even a little jazz. The great and the rare, with Sherman Waring.

Temporary Autonomous Zone
8-9 pm
I am here from Eugene by way of Rochester, NY. My show focuses on a wide variety of different styles of jazz. If it's jazzy, I'll play it. Brought to you by Matt Weir.

Nu Wave
9-10 pm
Best of 80s new wave music, with the occasional 90s tune for good measure!

Coming Attractions
10-11 pm

5-6 pm
Popular Music Board: Live music

Chamber of Thrills
6-7 pm
Rock and roll/power pop/variety - anything goes. Bands like Cheap Trick, Redd Kross, Posies, Blue Oyster Cult, wide range of rock music.

Memory Motel
7-8 pm
As Fred Savage's 15th cousin-in-law I've taken an interest in the "Wonder" years to the point where I HAVE to get an hour of overplay-free Classic Rock a week or I become as tone deaf as Bryan Ferry singing "Piece of My Heart."

Ground Zero
8-9 pm
Smooth, jazzy hip-hop.

Coming Attractions
9-10 pm
Rotating announcers.

Euro-House with Tzetzi

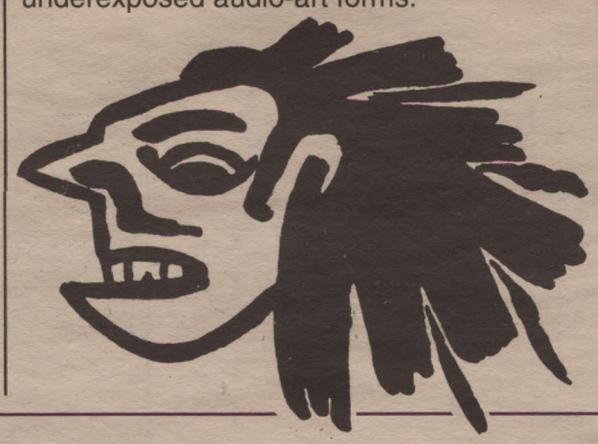
A Blast of Silence
11-12 am
Focuses on the extremes of audio media, touching on many genres which receive little or no air play in the Portland area. Includes sound, radio and noise artists; avant-garde, experimental, underground and ethnic music; spoken word, free improvisation and other underexposed audio-art forms.



Sunday

The Zany Zolo Muzik Hour
5-6 pm
Unveiling the enigmatic sounds of this new-fangled subculture known as zolo! Toon in for the most Zany Wacky Kooky Daffy Wiggly Wobbly vibrations in the galaxy! Absolutely DEVE!

The Stray Cat Hour
6-7 pm
DJ John Kirk plays a wide variety of traditional rock, soul music and their roots. Theme shows will be presented to highlight artists and their contributions. Get ready to shout and feel it!

African Voices
7-8 pm
An aural tour of contemporary African pop and some old favorites. A cultural journey given by guide Dieudonne Mayi.

Big Mess
8-9 pm
Adam brings you a veritable cornucopia of music for your listening pleasure: New Wave, Ambient, Gothic, and whatever else he picks up off his floor. Oh, the humanity! [If you have a request or just want to shoot the breeze send e-mail to : BIGMESSLTR@aol.com]

Subkulture
9-10 pm
A bizarre collage of Independent Underground, local, rock, punk, and college music that'll invade your mind with waves of sound.

Muy Bien Racing Hour
10-11 pm
Tune in to Don Caballero, Parliament, Ramones, Jesus Lizard, Gern Blanston, and Bad Brains. Need we say more?

Fast and Bulbous
